Whether you are here for the 1st time or the 1000th time, know that we are very glad you have come to worship with us!

If you have not yet registered in the parish, please do so. Registration, while perhaps somewhat boring, is important if:

* you want to celebrate sacraments you may need to complete
* you want to become Catholic

Your registration also helps our parish and our Diocese plan for the future.

Registration forms are located on the tables at each entrance to the church. You can drop your completed form in the offertory basket or in person at the Parish Office. Registration forms are also available on our website at

The Tenth Commandment

You Shall Not Covet Your Neighbor's Goods

—CCC, nos. 2534-2557

"The tenth commandment unfolds and completes the ninth, which is concerned with concupiscence of the flesh. It forbids coveting the goods of another, as the root of theft, robbery, and fraud, which the seventh commandment forbids. . . . The tenth commandment concerns the intentions of the heart."

—CCC, no. 2534

Where Your Treasure Is, There Also Will Your Heart Be (Mt 6:21)

When Jesus began the Sermon on the Mount, he proclaimed the eight Beatitudes as the ways to authentic happiness. The first of these stated that poverty of spirit would enable us to inherit the Kingdom of God. In other words, the first step on the road to joy begins with a healthy detachment from material goods. Later on in the same sermon, Jesus taught that building up wealth for its own sake is foolishness. We should be more interested in spiritual riches.

"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and decay destroy, and thieves break in and steal. But store up treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor decay destroys, nor thieves break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." (Mt 6:19-21)

The financial scandals that periodically occur in our culture remind us that greed is a constant threat to moral behavior. It leads many to conclude that money is the root of all evils. But in fact, "the love of money is the root of all evils" (1 Tm 6:10). In the study of the Seventh Commandment, we dealt with the visible acts of stealing and injustice. The Tenth Commandment looks at the interior attitudes of greed and envy that lead us to steal and act unjustly.

On the positive side, the Tenth Commandment calls us to practice poverty of spirit and generosity of heart. These virtues liberate us from being slaves to money and possessions. They enable us to have a preferential love for the poor and to be witnesses of justice and peace in the world. They also enable us to adopt a simplicity of life that frees us from consumerism and helps us preserve God's creation.

Sinful inclinations move us to envy what others have and lead to an unrestrained drive to acquire all that we can. We do have a reasonable need to acquire the means needed to care for our families. Greed is the distortion of this desire. The greedy person will stop at nothing to get all the money and possessions possible.

We need to remember that envy is the companion of greed; it is an attitude that fills us with sadness at the sight of another's prosperity. Envious people can be consumed with so much desire for what others have that they will even commit crimes to get what they want.

Baptized people should counter envy with humility, thanksgiving to God for his gifts to oneself and to others, goodwill, and surrender to the providence of God (cf. CCC, no. 2554). "Christ's faithful 'have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires' (Gal 5:24); they are led by the Spirit and follow his desires" (CCC, no. 2555). Poverty of heart is a way to avoid greed and envy. "Abandonment to the providence of the Father in heaven frees us from anxiety about tomorrow. Trust in God is a preparation for the blessedness of the poor. They shall see God" (CCC, no. 2547, citing Mt 6:25-34).

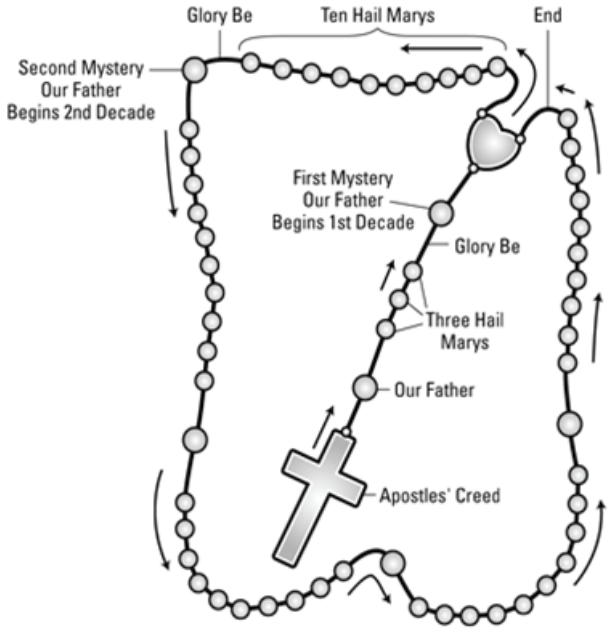
Praying the Rosary

by Ginny Kubitz Moyer

Since the early days of the Church, Christians have used knotted cords or prayer beads to help keep track of their prayers. The rosary as we know it today evolved in the Middle Ages, when the "Hail Mary" prayer became widely known. The term "rosary" comes from "rosarium," or a bouquet of roses; the prayers of the rosary were seen as a spiritual bouquet offered to Mary. In fact, there's an old tradition that Mary herself appeared to St. Dominic (1170-1221) and gave him the rosary as an aid in his preaching.

While praying each decade, Catholics meditate on key moments in Christ's life. Many of these involve Mary (the Annunciation, the Visitation, the Assumption, etc.) For this reason, the rosary is often seen as a way to draw closer to Christ through Mary. As Pope Paul VI wrote in his apostolic exhortation Marialis Cultus, the rosary helps us "meditate on the mysteries of the Lord's life as seen through the eyes of she who was closest to the Lord."

HOW TO PRAY THE ROSARY



Rachel's Vineyard Retreat

Healing the Wounds of Abortion

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be sharp, deep and crippling. You may feel a deep numbness and may not be able to name the pain or recognize any of the symptoms. It can also have a devastating impact on the father or grandparents of the aborted child and friend/s of the mother.

You do not have to continue to hide in shame and fear. Rachel's Vineyard's Retreat is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive, non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. It is designed to help both women and men experience the mercy and compassion of God.

If you have suffered through an abortion and have isolated yourself from healing and forgiveness, you might consider attending one of our retreat weekends. For more information, contact Judy Warenkiewicz at 732-536-6871. All inquiries are strictly confidential.

Reflection on the Readings for 3rd Sunday of Easter - May 1, 2022

DO YOU LOVE ME?

Today's Gospel reading zooms in on an intimate conversation between Jesus and Peter. Not long before this, at the Passion, Peter had denied Jesus three times. Now the risen Lord asks Peter three times, "Do you love me?"

What's particularly interesting about this scene is the language that Jesus and Peter use. When the Lord asks Peter, "Do you love me?" he uses the Greek word "agape," which refers to an unconditional, sacrificial, self-giving love; the deepest love you can imagine. Surprisingly, Peter answers, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you," but instead of "agape," he uses the Greek word "philia," which refers to a friendship; it's not quite the same depth of love as "agape."

Clearly, Peter is not ready to give all that Jesus is asking for, but today's readings are all about God's willingness to take whatever we're willing to give him and work with it. In the first reading this week, taken from the Acts of the Apostles, we see that Peter eventually does become willing to give his whole life for the risen Lord. This Sunday's readings challenge us to consider what our response would be to Jesus' question: "Do you 'agape' me?"

PRAYER

Imagine that you were one of the disciples in today's Gospel scene. You have followed Jesus, learned from him, walked with him. But now imagine he pulls you aside and asks you the question that he asked Peter that day, "Do you love me?" What goes through your mind, knowing that Jesus will know your heart and the truthfulness of your answer? How would you respond? Are you willing to "agape" Jesus—to love Jesus with total, unconditional, self-giving love? If, in truth, you would answer as Peter did with a "philia" love, what do you think Jesus would say to you in response?

RESOLUTION

Ask Jesus to show you one or two things in your life that might be holding you back from loving him with your whole heart, giving him that agape love. If you (like Peter) can't love God like this yet, ask him for the grace to be able to "agape" him and trust in the meantime that he will accept your "philia" love as he did Peter's. |formed.org
