STORIES THAT UPLIFT

Matthew 3:1-12

2nd Sunday of Advent - Year A

Fr. Michael Brizio, IMC

Website: www.frmichaelbrizio.com

There was a little boy visiting his grandparents on their farm. He was given a slingshot to play with out in the woods, but he could never hit his target. A little discouraged, he headed back home for the evening meal.

As he was walking back, he saw his grandma's pet duck. Just on an impulse, he let the sling fly; the stone hit the duck on the head and killed it. He was shocked and grieved. He quickly dug a hole and hid the duck in the mud, only to find his sister watching him. Mary kept quiet.

The following day, after lunch, grandma called Mary to do the dishes. Mary smiled and said, "Grandma, Johnny said he wanted to help you in the kitchen." Then she turned to Johnny and whispered, "Remember the duck." And Johnny did the dishes.

In the evening grandpa called the children to go fishing. Grandma said, "Sorry, I want Mary to help me make the dinner." Then Mary smiled and said, "Well Grandma, Johnny told me that he would like to help you to prepare the dinner." Then turning to Johnny, she whispered, "Remember the duck."

Mary went fishing while Johnny stayed back to help grandma to prepare the dinner. After many days of doing his chores and his sister's he could not stand it any longer. He went and confessed to his grandma that he had killed the duck.

Grandma knelt down and hugged him and said, "Sweetheart, I know that you killed the duck. I was standing at the window and saw everything. But because I love you, I have forgiven you. I was just wondering how long you would allow Mary to make a slave of you." You see, Johnny's confession led to his liberation.

 When we confess our sins we do not tell God what he does not know. He knows everything because he is standing at the window. Our failure to confess enslaves us. Advent is the appropriate time to admit our failures to God and others. †*

Second Sunday in Advent

The Immaculate Conception, 1627, Artist: Guido Reni Italian, Met Museum Collection.

Prayer from St. John Paul II

Immaculate Virgin!

Your spotless spiritual beauty is for us a living source of confidence and hope.
To have you as Mother, Holy Virgin, reassures us on the path of life
as a pledge of eternal salvation.
Because of this, O Mary,
we have recourse to you
with confidence.
Help us to build a world where human life is always cherished and defended,
every form of violence banished,
the peace of all tenaciously sought.

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is a holy day of obligation.

An essential part of God's plan for the mother of his Son was that she be conceived free from Original Sin. "Through the centuries the Church became ever more aware that Mary, 'full of grace' through God, was redeemed from the moment of her conception" (CCC, no. 491).

In anticipation that she was to bear the Son of God, Mary was preserved from the time of her conception from Original Sin. We call this the Immaculate Conception. No sin would touch her, so that she would be a fitting and worthy vessel of the Son of God. The Immaculate Conception does not refer to the virginal conception and birth of Christ, but rather to Mary's being conceived without inheriting Original Sin. In the course of time, the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception became more precisely enunciated, as its truth— long supported by the universal popular devotion of the faithful—was better understood by deepening theological inquiry.

In 1854, Pope Pius IX proclaimed this dogma infallibly: that is, in his role as supreme teacher of the Church, he declared that this doctrine is divinely revealed and must be accepted with faith by the entire Church.

Cultural Advent Saint Celebrations

St. Nicholas

DECEMBER 6

DID YOU KNOW?

"SANTA CLAUS" COMES FROM THE DUTCH FORM OF HIS NAME, "SINTERKLAAS."

St. Nicholas was a fourth century bishop in Lycia, a province in Turkey. He became well known for his generosity. He is also considered the patron saint of brides and children and the precursor to Santa Claus.

To celebrate St. Nicholas and his giving nature, children may get to celebrate this feast day by receiving special gifts in their shoes. Children are encouraged to leave their shoes outside their bedrooms the night of Dec. 5 and awaken to a fun surprise in the morning.

Saint Lucy

DECEMBER 13

DID YOU KNOW?

THE NAME LUCY MEANS LIGHT.

St. Lucy was martyred very young. She is the patron saint of the blind.

In the celebration of St. Lucy, children in Italy leave bowls of milk and carrots to attract the hungry donkey St. Lucy travels on to make sure she stops by their house and leaves presents. In Sweden, the tradition is that the oldest girl in the family wears a white dress and a red sash as a sign of martyrdom. The girl also wears a wreath crown with lighted white candles. All girls dressed as Lucy walk in procession singing traditional songs and share cookies with those present.

Our Lady of Guadalupe

DECEMBER 12

DID YOU KNOW?

THIS IS ONE OF THE MOST POPULAR RELIGIOUS FEASTS AMONG HISPANICS IN THE U.S.

Many parishes throughout the country celebrate this feast day by doing reenactments of the apparitions of Our Lady of Guadalupe to Juan Diego, praying a morning rosary dedicated to her, and bringing her the traditional "Mañanitas" with mariachi bands singing songs to praise her. Our Lady of Guadalupe is also considered the patroness of the unborn.

second SUNDAY OF ADVENT

■ LIGHT THE ADVENT WREATH

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit ... Come Lord Jesus, be our light! Help our lives bear good fruit.

■ READ THE GOSPEL for the Second Sunday of Advent (Cycle A) Matthew 3:1-12

"Therefore every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

■ REFLECT WITH A STORY

It sounds like John was having a bad day. The Pharisees and Sadducees arrive on the scene and John nearly loses it. He calls them a brood of vipers, compares them to stones and then tells them that if they don't change their sinful ways, they'll be cut down like dead trees. He says, "Every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

It's a harsh image and one that might be difficult for us to relate to. Why would we destroy trees that don't bear good fruit? But farmers around the world today who depend on their fruit trees for their income know that one, bad tree can hurt their entire crop.

Take Fidencio, for example. He is a coffee farmer who lives in Narino. Fidencio and his family's well-being depends on his ability to continue to produce good fruit. To do that, he has to pay close attention to the coffee trees that do not bear good fruit, and make sure they do not affect the rest of the crop. This is a very real concern for farmers like Fidencio, because many coffee trees where he lives are infected with a deadly fungus called leaf rust that can spread to other trees. Sometimes the farmers have to cut down infected trees to save the rest of the crop.

Just as Fidencio must rid his coffee farm of disease that will damage his trees, we must prune our lives of the things that damage our relationship with God, ourselves and others. By doing so, we can bear the good fruit John the Baptist talks about.

PRAY

Creator God, you are the master gardener. Help me to bear good fruit in my life—for myself, for my family and for my community. Amen

REFLECT

What do I need to stop doing or get rid of in my life in order to bear good fruit?

ACT

This week, prune your life of one or more material items you no longer need and donate them to charity. Oftentimes the clutter of everyday objects prevents us from focusing on what leads us to Christ.

GIVE

Reflections on the Readings for the 2nd Sunday of Advent—December 4, 2022

TRUE REPENTANCE

It may seem odd that, just as the secular world begins to celebrate peace and joy during the holiday season, we are asked in this week's Gospel to consider our sinfulness. The words of John the Baptist echo across the centuries: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!" Isn't John's talk about sin, God's wrath, and the need for repentance a bit of a downer as we prepare for Christmas?

It might seem that way, at least until we think about what it means to "repent." To repent is not just to realize that we have done bad things, or to berate ourselves continually for our errors. Repentance does mean that we confess our failures, but that's just the beginning. True repentance also entails turning toward those attributes and actions that will allow us to unite more closely with Our Lord. It involves an honest examination of conscience and a firm commitment to change.

That's what John is telling us in this week's reading when he accuses the Pharisees and Sadducees of being a "brood of vipers." He is, in very dramatic fashion, asking them to judge their actions against their words; to see if they are living according to the Word of God or merely mouthing words about God. He is calling them to make the dramatic change that lies at the heart of true repentance.

We are asked to do the same thing. What gives us hope is that Jesus, whose birth we will celebrate in a few short weeks, will bring with him the Holy Spirit. This is one of the reasons the Church includes this reading during Advent—for it is the Holy Spirit who breaks through the walls of our sinfulness and pride and illuminates our hearts. It is only through this illumination that we are able to set our feet on a new path, which leads to the abundant life that Jesus has promised is waiting for us.

PRAYER

Imagine that you are standing on the banks of the Jordan River listening to John the Baptist. You hear him say, "Every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire." What do you think as you hear those words? What areas of your life come to mind where you might not be bearing good fruit?

RESOLUTION

What is one thing—one "good fruit"—that you could do this week that would show your sincere desire to repent? Make a commitment to act on this thought by writing down a specific action you can do and a time you can do it. | formed.org
