Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

For those suffering after abortion:
May they know that the Lord desires to bring healing,
and turn to Him
for His mercy and peace.
Lord hear our prayer.

Many people are unaware that someone they know personally is silently suffering from participation in abortion. If a friend confided in you tomorrow that she had an abortion, would you be able to respond in a way that brings her closer to healing? Learn how in "How to Talk to a Friend Who's Had an Abortion": <http://bit.ly/friend->

STORIES THAT UPLIFT

Matthew 5:1-12

Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time - Year A

Fr. Michael Brizio, IMC

www.frmichaelbrizio.com

A native American chief who was nearing the end of his life gathered his three sons and told them, “Do you see that mountain in the distance? I want you to journey to that mountain, climb to its summit, and bring back the thing you think will be most helpful in leading our people.”

After several days, the first son returned with a load of flint stones, used to make arrow tips and spear points. He told his father, “Our people will never live in fear of their enemies. I know where there is a mount of flint.”

The second son climbed the top of the mountain and found forests rich with wood for making fires. When he returned, he said to his father, “Our people will never be cold in winter. I know where wood can be found in abundance to keep them warm and cook their food.”

The third son returned late and empty handed. He stated, “When I got to the top of the mountain, I found nothing worth bringing back. I searched everywhere, but the top of the mountain was barren rock and useless. Then I looked towards the horizon, far into the distance. I was astonished to see new land filled with forests and meadows, mountains and valleys, fish and animals—a land of great beauty and great peace. I brought nothing back, for the land was still far off and I didn’t have time to travel there. But I would love to go there someday; I delayed coming back because I found it very difficult to return after seeing the beauty of the land.”

The old chief’s eyes blazed. He grasped this third son in his arms proclaiming that he would succeed him as the new chief. He thought to himself, “My other sons brought back worthy things, necessary things. But my third son knows the way to a better land. It is important that the new chief has a vision and has seen the promised land and burns with a desire for it.”

 Only God can fill our emptiness. We like to believe that we can manage our lives, that we are self-sufficient, that we can make it on our own. Those who put their trust in human resources will be disappointed, but those who trust in God will never be disappointed. †*

GERRY COONEY

RETIRED BOXER, BUSINESSMAN, RADIO ANNOUNCER, AUTHOR

In the wild and wicked world of boxing, Gerry Cooney is a rarity: a fighter who has enjoyed success in and out of the ring. As a world-class heavyweight, Cooney advanced to #1 contender. In 1982 Cooney faced the unbeaten WBC World Heavyweight Champion Larry Holmes in a title fight of such magnitude that it was hyped on the cover of "Time" magazine.

Cooney went on to engage in high-profile bouts vs. Michael Spinks and George Foreman. He retired in 1990, having compiled a pro mark of 28-3 with 24 knockouts and was ranked 53rd on Ring Magazine's list of 100 greatest punchers of all time.

MARK HOUCK

SPEAKER, AUTHOR, EVANGELIST

Mark Houck is the Founder and President of The King's Men, Inc. He is an author and internationally known motivational speaker who developed in 2004 a highly successful ministry to help others become better leaders, protectors and providers. As a former All-American collegiate athlete and high school coach, Mark has drawn on his personal pursuit of excellence in sports to encourage and mentor thousands across North America and Europe.

Saint Blaise

DATES: DIED 316
FEAST DAY: FEBRUARY 3

Saint Blaise is a bishop and martyr who lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. For a time, Blaise lived in a cave to escape persecution. On his feast the church recalls a miracle cure associated with him and celebrates the blessing of the throats. Blaise apparently saved the life of a boy who was choking on a fish bone. The saint said that anyone who lit a candle in his memory would be free of infection, thus candles are used in the traditional throat blessing. He is listed among the Fourteen Holy Helpers, saints revered as healers.

He is the patron saint of throat illnesses, animals, wool combers, and wool trading.

Reflections for the 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time – January 29, 2023

TRUE HAPPINESS

As we enter the fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, we encounter the beautiful but challenging teachings of the Beatitudes. The Beatitudes present us with a paradox. Jesus says that the people who are suffering by the world's standards are actually blessed. In fact, the word "blessed" in Greek means someone who is so fortunate they should be envied!

The world says that blessing or good fortune is based on riches, honor, fame, pleasure, and worldly possessions. The problem is that all these things don't make us happy for very long. Think about how you feel when you make a large purchase like an expensive electronic device or a new car. Sure, you feel happy for a while, but in six months will you still feel that thrill? Probably not.

Jesus offers us a very different picture of happiness. He tells us that only one thing can make us truly happy, and that is God. God alone gives us perfect happiness, but in order to have that perfect happiness, we need to do what Jesus describes in the Beatitudes.

The world tells us to be powerful; Jesus tells us to be meek. The world tells us to look for pleasure; Jesus tells we will be comforted in our sorrow. The world tells us to acquire wealth; Jesus tells us to be poor in spirit.

And therein lies the paradox. We may lose out on the world's idea of happiness, but we will obtain a happiness that can never be taken away. By embracing what the world rejects, we ultimately gain exactly what the world seeks.

PRAYER

Imagine you are seated on the hillside, listening to Jesus preach. Now you hear him say, "Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted." What goes through your mind when you hear these words? In what area of your life are you mourning? How do you think God can comfort you in your sorrow?

Next, you hear Jesus go on to say the other ways in which you are "blessed." Which of those statements do you find most challenging? Which of these teachings do you think Jesus might be asking you to practice more in your life right now?

RESOLUTION

Choose one of the Beatitudes and write down three ways you might live it out this week in your family, your workplace, or your parish. | formed.org
