STORIES THAT UPLIFT

John 4:5-42

3rd Sunday of Lent - Year A

Fr. Michael Brizio, IMC

Website: www.frmichaelbrizio.com

Hermann Hesse's book Siddhartha narrates the wanderings of a man in search of inner peace and self-realization. As a Brahmin boy Siddhartha had everything—intelligence, handsome features, wealth—but he was restless. So, he renounced his family and set off to seek happiness. In succession he tried the asceticism of the Eastern monks, the way of enlightenment under the Buddha, the pleasures of sensual indulgence, and the luxuries of wealth, but all these only left him disappointed and disillusioned.

Disgusted to the point of despair, Siddhartha considered committing suicide in a river, when he suddenly heard from the depths of his subconscious the holy word "Om" that begins and ends all prayers.

The remembrance of that word awakened Siddhartha's slumbering spirit to realize anew that all is divine and that loving devotion to the universe is the key to happiness. The water of the river helped him die a symbolic death to his old life of futility and emptiness and be born again to a new life of fulfillment and happiness.

 Christ made us aware of our own emptiness, but did not leave it at that. He showed us how to begin to fill this emptiness, not from without, but from within. May we find in him the inner well that satisfies our deepest needs. †*

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT - MARCH 12, 2023

FIRST COMMUNION RETREAT

Our parish second graders came together for a Eucharist Retreat on the morning on Saturday, March 4th at St. Monica. The day was packed with activities in 3 sessions: a Last Supper experience, a church search, and a video presentation. Each session helped the children prepare for the reception of Holy Communion in May.

A 4th session included the parents who were invited to help their child create a Tabernacle for their home. The Communion class from St John's Parish in Lakehurst also made a visit, making for a memorable event for all.

CONFIRMATION

The Sacrament of Confirmation was conferred in our parish on Thursday, March 9th. Father Alex officiated at the Confirmation of 17 young people who worked diligently for two years for this moment. Congratulations to all! Many thanks to Religious Education Director Karen Badach and catechists for preparing the students for this new adventure in faith.

May the Holy Spirit always be your guide and give you the power to do amazing things with your lives using the Gifts of the Holy Spirit to build Christ's Kingdom through prayer, love and service.

RITE OF ELECTION CELEBRATED WITH BISHOP

On Feb. 26, parishioner Seth Blissenbach became one of 155 adults and children who attended the Rite of Election with the Bishop at the Co-Cathedral in Freehold. Seth is now one step closer to his Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Communion, which will take place at the Easter Vigil at St. Monica.

Seth and his Sponsor James Barchow were accompanied by Caitlin Mroz, who will be confirmed at the Easter Vigil along with Seth. Cait presented our Book of the Elect on behalf of our parish. Many thanks to RCIA coordinator Barbara Rookey for all her help getting to this day.

Saint Casimir

DATES: 1458-1484
FEAST DAY: MARCH 4

Born in Krakow, Casimir was the son of Casimir IV, king of Poland and grand duke of Lithuania, and Elizabeth of Austria.

From a young age, he was concerned with the integrity and justice of his father's rule. He worked to ensure the fair treatment and aid of the poor and less fortunate. He was called the Patron of the Poor because of his love for others and charitable works. Casimir was known to be a humble and approachable man, traits that were not always synonymous with rulers at the time.

Known for his refusal to take up arms, personal piety, generosity to the poor and devotion to the Blessed Mother, he rejected the idea of marrying in favor of voluntary chastity. During a visit to Lithuania, he fell ill, died from tuberculosis at the age of 25 and was buried in the cathedral in Vilnius. Canonized in 1521, he is the patron of Poland and Lithuania.

Reflections for the 3rd Sunday of Lent - March 12, 2023

A MESSIAH FOR ALL PEOPLE

In ancient times, access to a reliable well was essential. Without a steady supply of clean water, life would be difficult, if not impossible. In this week's Gospel, we see Jesus sitting by a well in the country of Samaria. It's noon, and we can assume that he is hot and tired. We know he is thirsty, because he asks a woman who is there drawing water to give him a drink.

This woman, known to us as the Samaritan Woman at the Well, has a checkered past. The upstanding women of the community drew their water early in the day; she doesn't want to be seen, so she comes at an off-hour. When Jesus, who is a Jew, speaks to her, she is taken aback. Jews didn't usually speak with Samaritans. In fact, a little later when his disciples join him, they aren't too keen on the fact Jesus was chatting with a Samaritan woman either.

This Gospel scene has a kind of nuptial quality about it because a well is where a groom would come to meet his bride. Like a bridegroom lovingly seeking his bride, Jesus ardently desires this Samaritan woman (and her people whom she represents) to be reunited with God. The Samaritan woman has been a bride five times, and Jesus points this out. But then he goes beyond reminding her of her failure by reaching into the recesses of her deepest wounds of rejection and lack of love to tell her that he is, indeed, the long-awaited one, the Messiah—the one who will fulfill her deepest thirsts and longings. Through her, Jesus invites the Samaritan people, who were separated from the people of Israel, to return to their true bridegroom. By extension, he also invites all of us who come to him with open, thirsting hearts to join him at every Mass—at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb—so that we might say with the Samaritans: “This is truly the savior of the world!”

PRAYER

Prayerfully consider what you thirst for in life—what you spend your time and energy pursuing most. Perhaps it is success at work, the success of your kids, your favorite sport, entertainment, being liked, financial security. Now imagine Jesus saying specifically to you: “Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst. The water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life.” How do these words apply to you? Reflect in prayer on your own experience of how your pursuits for the things of this world leave you “thirsty again” and on how only Jesus can fulfill your deepest thirsts.

RESOLUTION

Ask Jesus how you can turn to him more this week to find your deepest thirsts quenched in him instead of turning to the things of this world. | formed.org
