NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

“How beautiful is the Mass, especially when celebrated in a cathedral filled like ours on Sundays, or even when celebrated simply in village chapels with people full of faith, who know that Christ, the King of Glory, Eternal Priest, is gathering together all that we bring him from the week: sorrows, failures, hopes, plans, joys, sadness, pain! How many things each one of you, brothers and sisters, brings to your Sunday Mass!”

STORIES THAT UPLIFT

John 10:1-10

4th Sunday of Easter - Year A

Fr. Michael Brizio, IMC

A census taker went to the home of a rather poor family in the mountains of West Virginia to gather information.

He asked the mother how many dependents she had.

She began, "Well, there is Rosie, and Billy, and Lewella, Susie, Harry, and Jeffrey. There is Johnny, and Harvey, and our dog, Willie."

It was then that the census taker interrupted her and said: "No, ma'am, that's not necessary. I only need the humans."

"Ah," she said. "Well, there is Rosie, and Billy, and Lewella, Susie, Harry, and Jeffrey, Johnny, and Harvey, and...."

But there once again, the census taker interrupted her.

Slightly exasperated, he said, "No, ma'am, you do not seem to understand. I do not need their names; I just need the numbers."

To which the old woman replied, "But I do not know them by numbers. I only know them by name."

In today's gospel Jesus, the good shepherd, says that he knows us, his sheep, by name. †*

The Fourth Sunday of Easter

The Response is: Mary, pray for us.

Mary, Mother of all Life,
help us to respect human life from the moment of conception
to the moment of natural death. R.

Mary, Mother of Compassion,
You showed us how valuable a single life can be;
Help us to guard and protect the lives of all people entrusted to our care. R.

Mary, Mother of the Child Jesus,
with St. Joseph you formed the Holy Family.
Guard and protect all families in this earthly life; R.

Mary, Mother Most Holy,
You sanctified the vocation of motherhood;
Pour out your heavenly aid on all mothers and help them to be holy. R.

Mary, Mother of Sorrows, Simeon's prophecy foretold that a sword of suffering would pierce your heart;
Bring comfort and hope to all mothers who suffer over their children. R.

Mary, Full of Grace,
You had a choice in responding to God's call;
Help us always to say "Yes" to the will of God
in our lives,
And strive always to do whatever he tells us. R.

Mary, Comforter of the Afflicted, Pour forth your heavenly grace on all who are in need of God's healing,
Especially those involved in abortion;
Help them to experience the love and mercy of Christ, your Son. R.

Mary, Intercessor and Advocate,
We lift up the poor, the displaced, the marginalized and vulnerable members of society;
Help them to never abandon hope, but to place
their trust in the God who gave them life. R.

Mary, Mother of the Word Incarnate, you bore in your womb him whom the heavens cannot contain;
Help us to bear witness to Christ by the example of our lives
And show the world the extravagant love of God. R.

May 1: Feast of St. Joseph the Worker

St. Joseph has two feast days on the liturgical calendar. The first is March 19—Joseph, the Husband of Mary. The second is May 1—Joseph, the Worker.

“Saint Joseph is a man of great spirit. He is great in faith, not because he speaks his own words, but above all because he listens to the words of the Living God. He listens in silence. And his heart ceaselessly perseveres in the readiness to accept the Truth contained in the word of the Living God,” Pope John Paul II had once said.

There is very little about the life of Joseph in Scripture but still, we know that he was the chaste husband of Mary, the foster father of Jesus, a carpenter and a man who was not wealthy. We also know that he came from the royal lineage of King David.

We can see from his actions in scripture that Joseph was a compassionate man, and obedient to the will of God. He also loved Mary and Jesus and wanted to protect and provide for them.

Since Joseph does not appear in Jesus' public life, at his death, or resurrection, many historians believe Joseph had probably died before Jesus entered public ministry.

Joseph is the patron of many things, including the universal Church, fathers, the dying and social justice.

Reflection for 4th Sunday of Easter — April 30, 2023

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

We like the idea of Jesus as the Good Shepherd, but we seldom like the idea of being sheep—people who blindly follow anyone or anything. However, that's not what sheep and shepherds are like in real life. In cultures where sheep are still herded by individuals, a deep bond and trust exists between the shepherd and his or her flock. The sheep know and trust their shepherd so intimately that all she has to do is call them by name. And he knows each of his sheep so well that he has given them individual names!

That's the kind of relationship Jesus is talking about in today's Gospel...a deep bond of love that enables us to trust that Jesus is leading us on the path that leads to abundant life. He tells us it is through listening to him and his voice that we can truly find the green pasture and still water that we all desire to have.

But how are we to know and hear our shepherd's voice? The only way we can hear him is by finding some quiet away from all the noise of life so that we can concentrate on prayer. This doesn't necessarily mean the formal reciting of words, but simply being in the presence of the One who loves us. We need to silence ourselves in order that we can begin to discern the small, still whisper in our hearts. It is only when we take that time that we are able to enter into the kind of relationship with God that gives us abundant life here, and in the next world to come.

PRAYER

Imagine you are with the disciples as Jesus begins to talk. He looks directly at you and says, "Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep." What does this mean to you? Do you see yourself as one of Jesus's sheep? How is he your gate? Now hear him say to you, "Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture." What kind of pasture does your soul long for?

RESOLUTION

Set aside some time this week and turn off your computer, your cellphone, and any other electronic devices. Go into a private place where you can meditate on what it means to have Jesus as your shepherd. | formed.org
