THANK YOU TO THE YOUTH GROUP

On behalf of the parish, Father Alex would like to thank St. Monica's Youth Group for purchasing a beautiful Canopy for future Eucharistic Processions.

As a small group with younger children, we are very proud of each of the members for working diligently to raise enough funds to purchase the Canopy as well as special poles to hold the Canopy aloft.

The Youth Group wanted to "give back" to our faith community and used the money they raised from past fundraisers in this way. The parish is grateful for this gift that will allow us to venerate the Blessed Sacrament both inside and outside the church building.

Thank you for your contributions as we support the ministries, programs and facilities of our parish.

WOMEN OF ST. MONICA SEEK NEW MEMBERS

Who are the Women of St Monica?

We are parishioners dedicated to our Catholic faith, our families, and our Church.

We are planners who meet monthly to plan future activities like fundraisers for our parish needs or for other worthy organizations.

We are adult learners about our faith, arranging for informative speakers on topics of interest. And occasionally we join in "just for fun" activities!

We invite new members to join us, and welcome you to attend our meetings held the 1st Sunday of the month at 12 p.m. in "Little Church," located across the hall from the parish office.

For questions, contact Linda Thompson at 908-770-0681. We look forward to meeting you!

FROM BISHOP DAVID M. O'CONNELL, C.M.

I remember his October 1965 trip to the United States so clearly, as though it were yesterday. As Catholic school children, we felt so proud to watch Pope St. Paul VI arrive in New York – the first pope to visit America. All of our classrooms were suddenly furnished with television sets to view this momentous occasion. Only much later in my life would I appreciate the purpose of this trip and the Pope's message as he addressed the United Nations:

These are the words you are looking for us to say and the words we cannot utter without feeling aware of their seriousness and solemnity: never again one against the other, never, never again! ... never again war! Never again war! It is peace, peace that has to guide the destiny of the nations of all mankind (Pope Paul VI, "Address to the United Nations," October 4, 1965).

I recalled his impassioned words once again almost 60 years later as we heard the news on Saturday morning, Oct. 7, of the surprise and unprovoked attack on Israel by the Palestinian terrorist group Hamas. "Citizens of Israel, we are at war," Israel's Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu solemnly proclaimed in response. The sudden, staggering, indiscriminate loss of hundreds and hundreds of lives, the abductions and torture of Israeli military personnel and ordinary citizens as well as the ongoing threat to countless others in what promises to be another long and brutal conflict simply defy any reasonable, justifiable explanation.

Why can't this region of the world ever experience enduring peace? Why is the assault and killing of people, our sisters and brothers, always the solution presented to deal with problems encountered there? Have we learned nothing from history?

The prophetic insights of Pope St. Paul VI at the United Nations keep coming to mind:

As you know very well, peace is not built merely by means of politics and a balance of power and interests. It is built with the mind, with ideas, with the works of peace. ... Will the world ever come to change the selfish and bellicose outlook that has spun out such a great part of its history up to now? ... If you want to be brothers, let the arms fall from your hands. A person cannot love with offensive weapons in his hands. Arms, and especially the terrible arms that modern science has provided you, engender bad dreams, feed evil sentiments, create nightmares, hostilities, and dark resolutions even before they cause any victims and ruins. They call for enormous expenses. They interrupt projects of solidarity and of useful labor. They warp the outlook of nations. So long as man remains the weak, changeable, and even wicked being that he so often shows himself to be, defensive arms will, alas, be necessary.

There is no question, Saturday's attack was prompted by pure evil in motivation, intention and consequence. Human life has no value to the terrorist! On Sunday morning, Oct. 8, Pope Francis sadly lamented to the people gathered in St. Peter's Square:

I am following with apprehension and pain what is happening in Israel, where violence has exploded even more ferociously, causing hundreds of deaths and injuries. I express my closeness to the families of the victims. I pray for them and for all those who are experiencing hours of terror and of anguish. Please stop the attacks and weapons and understand that terrorism and war do not lead to any solution, but only to the death and suffering of many innocent people. War is a defeat; every war is always a defeat.

This unprovoked terrorist attack on Israel occurred on Oct. 7, the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, during the month dedicated to her patronage through this prayer. As the conflict unfolds in the Middle East, let us pray the Rosary for peace, daily asking Our Blessed Mother to intercede with her Divine Son, the Prince of Peace, for an end to the inhumanities experienced by our sisters and brothers there: that lives might be spared; that the families of the dead might be comforted; that those abducted might be protected and promptly returned to their loved ones; that the destruction of homes and properties might be minimized, that the desire for lasting peace might find its way into the hearts of people who planned and created this war as well as those brutally affected by it.

May the words of Pope St. Paul VI soon come to pass there and throughout all the areas of crisis and conflict in our increasingly fragile world: "Let the arms fall from your hands ... Never again war. Never again!"

Our Lady of the Rosary, pray for us!

HEALING THE WOUNDS OF ABORTION

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be sharp, deep, and crippling. You may feel a deep numbness and may not be able to name the pain or recognize any of the symptoms. It can also have a devastating impact on the father or grandparents of the aborted child and friend/s of the mother. You do not have to continue to hide in shame and fear. Rachel's Vineyard's Retreat is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. It is designed to help both women and men experience the mercy and compassion of God.

If you have suffered through an abortion and have isolated yourself from healing and forgiveness, you might consider attending one our retreat weekends. For more information, contact Judy Warenkiewicz at 732-536-6871. All inquiries are strictly confidential.

PRAYER FOR THE SYNOD ENGLISH

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.
With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts.
Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.
We are weak and sinful.
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance
lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.
Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life
and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.
All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Reflections for the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time — October 22, 2023

RENDER UNTO CAESAR

How many times have we heard the expression, “Render unto Caesar that which is Caesar’s and render unto God that which is God’s?” Today’s Gospel gives us the origin of that phrase.

The Pharisees, who have been attempting to trap Jesus for some time, have joined forces with some of their opponents, the Herodians, to pose a tricky question: Is it lawful to pay the census tax? Since the Pharisees didn’t believe it was lawful and the Herodians did, no matter what Jesus answered, someone was bound to be angered.

Jesus’s answer shows his acumen and wisdom. Instead of giving a direct reply, he first calls out the Pharisees for trying to trap him. He understands their motive is to find a reason to kill him, and he lets them know that he recognizes that. Then he very carefully gives the reply we are familiar with, saying that some things belong to God and some things belong to Caesar. It is our responsibility to see the difference and respond accordingly.

This can be quite a challenge for us who live today in an increasingly secularized world. Many want to see how far they can push the limits and have us render unto Caesar that which belongs rightly to God. We must be ready for the test and continue to render unto God that which is God’s while still being actively engaged in the secular domain with the good news of the Gospel. Not an easy task by any means, and one that can be accomplished only with the grace of God himself.

PRAYER

Imagine that you are with the group listening to the Pharisees confront Jesus about paying the census tax. What do you expect him to say? When he says, “Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God,” are you surprised? Now think about your own life. What in your life rightly belongs to Caesar? Are you giving to Caesar what is Caesar’s? What in your life belongs to God? Are you giving that to God? Which is easier to do: pay Caesar or pay God?

RESOLUTION

As difficult as it may be, when you are paid this week, thank God that you are able to “render unto Caesar” by paying your taxes. Then set aside a donation to give to the Church or to the poor in order to “render unto God” as well. |formed.org
