STANDING TOGETHER FOR LIFE

Mass for Life Lunch & Seminar

On Friday Jan. 19, 2024, the faithful of the Diocese of Trenton will come together in prayer and solidarity to proclaim the sanctity of all human life!

All are invited to an 11 a.m. Mass for Life celebrated by Bishop David M. O'Connell, C.M., in St. Robert Bellarmine Co-Cathedral, 61 Georgia Rd., Freehold. No registration is needed for the Mass, seating is first come first served. Mass will be livestreamed on:

youtube.com/trentondiocese

The Mass will be followed by a Lunch & Seminar in the Co-Cathedral's Dentici Hall. A panel of local expert speakers will offer practical, actionable, ideas and resources to take back to parishes where they can be immediately applied to build a culture of life in a spirit of inter-ministry collaboration and radical solidarity with vulnerable pregnant women and families. Advanced registration to attend the Lunch & Seminar is required by Jan. 10, 2024. Full details for the day's events, including a registration link for the Lunch & Seminar can be found here: dioceseoftrenton.org/standing-together-for-life. THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD – JANUARY 7, 2024

The Epiphany of the Lord: Gifts from the Heart

THE GRACE I SEEK: to offer the Lord the treasures of my heart

IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER, AND OF THE SON, AND OF THE HOLY SPIRIT. AMEN.

Pause for a few moments, and allow yourself to become aware of Jesus' gift of himself in the Eucharist. Realize that, at this very moment, the Lord of Life is gazing upon you with great love. Allow yourself to receive his loving gaze. You are his beloved child. Rest in his loving gaze. Thank Jesus for the gift of himself in the Eucharist.

ASK FOR THE GRACE: Jesus, help me to give to you gifts from my heart.

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION — Read slowly, 3–4 times. Allow the words of Scripture to wash over your mind and heart. Allow the Holy Spirit to speak to you through this passage.

"Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you." (Isaiah 60:5)

FOR REFLECTION — Allow yourself to sit with these questions for a while, being attentive to how the Lord is speaking in your heart.

In the busyness of our daily lives, it is easy to miss the abundance of love the Lord is pouring into our hearts. Over the last week or two, can you think of an instance when the Lord was giving you a true gift, but you were too busy or preoccupied to let your heart "throb and overflow" at the goodness of Jesus? Talk to him about your experience.

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION — Read slowly, 3–4 times. Again, allow the words of Scripture to wash over your mind and heart. Let the Holy Spirit speak to you in a personal way through this passage.

"They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." (Matthew 2:10–11)

FOR REFLECTION — When we begin to see the gifts that Jesus is giving to us throughout the day, our natural response is to give back all we have to him in joy, and the way we give to Jesus is often by giving to others. Think about all of the gifts and talents the Lord has given to you. Are there any that you have not cultivated? What is the reason for this? Ask the Lord to help you identify any of the fears holding you back. Present them to him in simplicity, asking for the courage to overcome them. It might be helpful to journal about them, too!

Remain in silence with the Lord. Allow him to speak in the silence, in your heart. Receive his presence. If it helps, write down what you sense the Lord communicating to you during this time of prayer.

CLOSING PRAYER — O God, who on this day revealed your Only Begotten Son to the nations by the guidance of a star, grant in your mercy that we, who know you already by faith, may be brought to behold the beauty of your sublime glory. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen. (Collect, The Epiphany of the Lord, Mass During the Day)

SUNDAY MASS CONNECTION — At every Mass, Jesus offers himself to the Father for us. We can always join our own offerings with Jesus at Mass. This Sunday, offer your desire to cultivate the treasures of your heart to be able to show Jesus' love to those around you.

LOVE IN ACTION — Look back at the uncultivated talent(s) you identified during the second reflection. Ask the Lord to show you how you can develop these gifts. Write these steps down; it may also be helpful to ask a friend for support and encouragement! Trust that the Lord will use these efforts to grow his Kingdom.

Baptism of the Lord: New Life

THE GRACE I SEEK: to live the graces of my Baptism so as to be guided in all things by the new life I have received through the Holy Spirit

IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER, AND OF THE SON, AND OF THE HOLY SPIRIT. AMEN.

Pause for a few moments, and allow yourself to become aware of Jesus' gift of himself in the Eucharist. Realize that, at this very moment, the Lord of Life is gazing upon you with great love. Allow yourself to receive his loving gaze. You are his beloved child. Rest in his loving gaze. Thank Jesus for the gift of himself in the Eucharist.

ASK FOR THE GRACE: Jesus, please help me to generously share the new life I have received through the gift of being reborn by water and the Holy Spirit at my Baptism.

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION — Read slowly, 3–4 times. Allow the words of Scripture to wash over your mind and heart. Allow the Holy Spirit to speak to you through this passage.

“I have grasped you by the hand; I formed you, and set you as a covenant of the people, a light for the nations.”
(Isaiah 42:6)

FOR REFLECTION — Allow yourself to sit with these questions for a while, being attentive to how the Lord is speaking in your heart.

How is the Lord calling me to live my identity as a beloved child of God and member of his Body, the Church, fully obedient to his loving plan for me?

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION — Read slowly, 3–4 times. Again, allow the words of Scripture to wash over your mind and heart. Let the Holy Spirit speak to you in a personal way through this passage.

“One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.” (Mark 1:7–8)

FOR REFLECTION — Contemplate the humble, filial obedience of Christ at his Baptism, and give thanks for the gift of your own Baptism. Ask our Lord for the grace to fully live your identity and mission as a beloved child of God. Ask Jesus to help you believe in his self-sacrificial love for you.

Remain in silence with the Lord. Allow him to speak in the silence, in your heart. Receive his presence. If it helps, write down what you sense the Lord communicating to you during this time of prayer.

CLOSING PRAYER — Almighty and ever-living God, who, when Christ had been baptized in the River Jordan and as the Holy Spirit descended upon him, solemnly declared him your beloved Son, grant that your children by adoption, reborn of water and the Holy Spirit, may always be well pleasing to you. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen. (Collect, The Baptism of the Lord)

SUNDAY MASS CONNECTION — Every time that we enter a church, we dip our fingers into the holy water as a reminder of our Baptism. As we conclude the Christmas Season, ask Our Lord to help your life become a living gospel that proclaims the liberating and saving power of Christ's love to the ends of the earth. At Mass, offer your desire for many more people to become part of God's family through the saving waters of Baptism.

LOVE IN ACTION — Considering the grace you just prayed for, ask the Holy Spirit to help you identify someone in your life who is not baptized. Pray for that person, and ask the Lord to help you find a loving way to invite them to consider the incredible gift of becoming a child of God and member of the Church.

Reflections on the readings for the Epiphany of the Lord – January 7, 2024

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Jesus came in the most unexpected of ways; the King of Kings was born in a manger as a baby. His coming was not shouted from the rooftops, nor did he come as a great warrior, like so many of the Jewish people expected. Since Jesus's birth was concealed from most of the world, Italian crèches highlight this aspect of the Nativity. Unlike American Nativity scenes, they are extremely busy and showcase an entire village; Jesus, Mary, and Joseph are not the prominent or central figures. The Italian crèche allows us to really understand how Jesus came. He was hidden. His coming was humble, and it took a journey of faith and trust to find him.

The Magi in today's Gospel had the wisdom and openness to see the light of the star and follow it. They were on watch, just as we were during Advent, and they had hearts willing to follow the light that they saw. They set aside the tasks of daily life in order to worship the Messiah. Are we willing to do the same in our own lives? Do we seek Christ, and when we find him, do we worship him and pay him homage?

PRAYER

When the Magi arrived at the place where Jesus was born, they immediately recognized him as their Savior, “[falling] down and [worshipping] him” (Matthew 2:11). They saw this innocent child, their Lord, and offered him their best gifts—gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

What gifts do you have to offer to Christ? Do you offer to him from your excess or do you offer him all that you are?

The best you can give to Jesus is your very self—your heart. Have you offered it to him? What is holding you back from giving the infant Jesus your heart today?

Take some time to re-read through today's Gospel. If a word or phrase jumps out at you, pause and take time to pray and reflect. Listen to the words God wants to speak to you.

RESOLUTION

The story of the Magi's journey is truly remarkable. They are an example of a profound humility and trust in God. What area of your life do you need to focus on this week? You can model the example of the Magi by doing your part in studying and learning the Faith. You can practice humility and be open to what God wants to show you, especially when it isn't part of your own plan. You can detach from the busyness of your daily lives and follow Christ. And finally, you can offer your heart to Christ. Don't hold back from giving him your best. He longs for you, just as you are. Make a commitment to choose one of the four attributes of the Wise Men to live out this week. | formed.org
