WE ARE THE WOMEN OF ST. MONICA

But who ARE we? We are parishioners who are dedicated to our Catholic faith, to our families, and to our Church. We meet monthly to plan future activities like fundraisers for our parish needs or for other worthy organizations; to listen to informative speakers on topics of interest; to occasionally join in "just for fun" activities, and more!

We Women of St. Monica are looking for new members to join us, and we invite you to attend our next meeting, Sunday, Sept. 3rd after the 11:00 a.m. Mass.

If you are interested but unable to attend this meeting, be aware our meetings are regularly held the first Sunday each month at 12:00 p.m. in the parish meeting room called Little Church. We really are looking forward to meeting you!

Contact Linda Thompson 908-770-0681 for further information.

EUCCHARISTIC MIRACLES EXHIBIT

This traveling exhibit was created to assist those who will experience it to affirm belief in the Real Presence of the Jesus in the Eucharist. It is based upon the website created by Blessed Carlo Acutis to catalogue all of the eucharistic miracles that have taken place worldwide. Acutis was a young man who lived in Italy. In his short life he was especially interested in web design and computer technology. He died at age 15 in 2006, and was beatified in 2020.

This exhibit intentionally reminds us that the historical miracles we are learning about on the walls of the exhibit are all pointing to the miracle in front of us ☐ Jesus, present in the Most Holy Eucharist!

As the exhibit travels through our diocese you are encouraged to make a visit:

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

For all Catholics:
That we may steadfastly proclaim and uphold the dignity of all human life,
in all stages and circumstances.
Lord hear our prayer.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

*Gaze upon, examine, contemplate, most noble queen, desiring to follow your spouse, who is more beautiful than the sons of humankind, and who for your salvation became the vilest of men, despised, struck, and flogged repeatedly over his entire body, dying while suffering the excruciating torments of the cross. If you suffer with him, with him you will reign, grieving with him, with him you will rejoice, dying with him on the cross of tribulation, with him you will possess mansions in heaven
among the splendors of the saints, and your name will be recorded in the Book of Life and will bring you glory among men and women.*

Rose of Lima

Rose of Lima (born Isabel Flores de Oliva; April 20, 1586 - Aug. 24 24,1617), was born to a noble family and is the patron saint of embroidery, gardening and cultivation of blooming flowers.

As a young girl, in imitation of Catherine of Siena, she began to fast three times a week and performed severe penances in secret. When she was admired for her beauty, Rose cut off her hair and rubbed pepper on her face, upset that men were beginning to take notice of her. She rejected all suitors against the objections of her friends and her family.

Despite the censure of her parents, she spent many hours contemplating the Blessed Sacrament, which she received daily, an extremely rare practice in that period. She was determined to take a vow of virginity, which was opposed by her parents who wished her to marry. Finally, out of frustration, her father gave her a room to herself in the family home.

She helped the sick and hungry in her community, bringing them to her room and taking care of them. Rose sold her fine needlework and took flowers that she grew to market, to help her family. She made and sold lace and embroidery to care for the poor, and she prayed and did penance in a little grotto that she had built. Over time she became a recluse, leaving her room only for her visits to church. Rose died on August 24, 1617, at the young age of 31. Her feast day is August 23. It was said that upon her death roses fell from the sky and the streets of Lima smelled of roses.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - AUGUST 20, 2023

Why Become a Hospice Volunteer?

The simplest gifts are often the most profound. If you've got time, empathy, and compassion, you have the ability to support those nearing end of life. If you have been searching for meaningful ways to spend your time, we invite you to explore the role of hospice volunteer with VNA Health Group.

Companionship visits in patient's homes or facilities in Ocean County, pet therapy, administrative projects, or comforting phone calls from our Toms River office, are just some of the ways in which our volunteers support patients and their families.

Training will be provided by members of the VNA Hospice Team on 3 consecutive Wednesdays: September 13th, 20th & 27th 2023 10:00 am □ 3:00 pm

Advanced registration is required. Volunteers must attend all 3 sessions.

Reflections for the 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time — August 20, 2023

GREAT FAITH AND PRAYER

In this week's Gospel, Jesus goes into Gentile (non-Jewish) territory and encounters there a Canaanite woman whose daughter is ill. She learns Jesus is there and goes to him, begging for help. At first Jesus doesn't answer her, but she continues to beg for his help. Even when he tells her that it isn't right to give the food of the children to the dogs, she retorts by saying that even the dogs get crumbs. Jesus is so impressed by her boldness that he heals her daughter, saying, "Oh woman, great is your faith!"

From this story, we learn two important points. The first is that persistent prayer backed by unwavering faith will receive an answer from the Lord. We don't always receive the answers in the way we want or expect to, but if we pray persistently, we will see our hearts open up to the good thing God wants for us.

The second is that we who live 2,000 years after Christ can still receive his healing and blessing. He healed the woman's daughter from a distance and he can still heal us today. Time and space are no barriers to the Lord of all time and all space. Since many of us have had the experience of praying when it seems as if our prayers are battering against a brick wall, this Gospel story of the persistent woman serves to increase our faith in the love and mercy of the Lord for each one of us. formed.org

During a general audience in 2021, Pope Francis said that persistent prayer can lead to miracles "because prayer goes directly to the heart of the tenderness of God." To explain what persistent prayer can accomplish, the pope recounted the story (similar to today's Gospel story) of a father of a nine-year-old Argentine girl who was told that his hospitalized daughter would not survive the night.

Pope Francis said: "He left his wife there with the child in the hospital, he took the train and he traveled 70 kilometers [around 45 miles] towards the Basilica of Our Lady of Luján, Patroness of Argentina. And there -- the basilica was already closed, it was almost 10 o'clock at night, in the evening -- he clung to the gates of the basilica and spent all night praying to Our Lady, fighting for his daughter's health."

"This is not a figment of the imagination: I saw him! I saw him myself. That man there, fighting. At the end, at six o'clock in the morning, the church opened, he entered to salute Our Lady, and returned home. And he thought: 'She has left us. No, Our Lady cannot do this to me.'"

"Then he went to see his wife, and she was smiling, saying: 'I don't know what happened. The doctors said that something changed, and now she is cured.'"

The pope offered the man as an example of the fruits of tenacious prayer. He said: "That man, fighting with prayer, received the grace of Our Lady. Our Lady listened to him. And I saw this: prayer works miracles, because prayer goes directly to the heart of the tenderness of God, who cares for us like a father. And when He does not grant us a grace, He will grant us another which in time we will see. But always, combat in prayer to ask for grace. Prayer is combat, and the Lord is always with us."

PRAYER

What is the deepest prayer on your heart? Imagine that you are with the woman in today's Gospel. You hear her banter with Jesus and you see her joy at being granted her request. Now you come before Jesus with your desire, your prayer. Picture yourself presenting that petition to him. Do you truly believe that he will answer your prayer? Are you willing to persevere in making this request if it is not answered right away? Are you open to having your heart conform to his will if he should respond to your prayer in a way other than what you request.

RESOLUTION

Make a "Prayer List." Write down what you are praying for and then record the response: Yes, No, or Wait. Keep the journal for at least a month and pay attention to how God is responding to your requests. Also trust that God wants what is best for you and sometimes answers our prayers in unexpected ways that are truly for the best for us.
