KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Baby Bottle Boomerang

The Knights of Columbus sincerely thank you for your participation in the recent "Baby Bottle Boomerang Campaign." As a result of your participation a total of $2,109.00 was raised. All of this money will be donated to the Open Door Pregnancy Center in Tom's River. We have already advanced them $500 during the campaign because they were having a difficult time with funding.

Your contributions have helped young couples and unwed mothers to keep the babies that were conceived. Our work and that of others is helping these mothers keep their babies, reducing abortions. Hundreds of children are being born as a result of your generous contributions. Thank you very much.

CERTIFICATES OF ELIGIBILITY

"Baptism is the source of new life in Christ and for that baptismal grace to unfold, the parent's help is important. So too is the role of the godfather and godmother, who must be firm believers, able and ready to help the newly baptized on the road of Christian life." CCC,1253-1255

"Candidates for the sacrament of confirmation, as for baptism, fittingly seek the spiritual help of a sponsor. To emphasize the unity of the two sacraments, it is appropriate (but not required) that the confirmation sponsor be one of the baptism godparents." CCC 1254, 1311

Before either sacrament is celebrated, all godparents and sponsors are required to submit to St. Monica's parish office a Certificate of Eligibility. This form can be obtained from the parish office of the godparent or sponsor.

To receive the form, the person must:

⇒ Be an active Catholic, registered and attending Mass in their Catholic parish for at least 6 months

⇒ Be at least 16 years of age

⇒ Have completed the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation

⇒ If married, have a valid marriage within the Catholic Church

⇒ Parents cannot be their child's sponsor or godparent

If you are asked to be a baptism godparent or confirmation sponsor and you meet all the guidelines above, please call the parish office as soon as possible to obtain your Certificate of Eligibility. When in doubt, call the parish office for help at: 732-928-0279

Respect Life Month | October

Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month*, and the first Sunday of October is observed as* Respect Life Sunday*. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During the month of October, the*

Top Reasons to Oppose Assisted Suicide

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/reasons-against-assisted-suicide.

Some polls indicate that the public is receptive to assisted suicide. But the same polls show that people's views shift when they learn about its dangers—especially the dangers for those who are poor, elderly, disabled, or without access to good medical care. Consider that, in Oregon and California, some patients' health insurance offered to pay for assisted suicide, but not treatment. And in states where assisted suicide is legal, often no psychiatric evaluation or treatment is required. Additionally, assisted suicide fosters discrimination by creating two classes of people: those whose suicides we spend millions of dollars to prevent and those whose suicides we assist and treat as a positive good.

Assisted suicide fosters discrimination.

St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus

Virgin and Doctor of the Church

(St. Thérèse of Lisieux, "the Little Flower")

St. Thérèse was the youngest of nine children. Four died at a young age, and the remaining five girls, including Thérèse, would all enter religious life. In her short life, Thérèse endured great suffering and gave great love.

At just four years old, Thérèse's mother died, a hard blow for the little Thérèse. She suffered greatly from the loss and carried this weight into her early teenage years. Still, she was supported by the love and care of her father and sisters. She was taught by her elder sisters, Marie and Pauline, until age eight. Then she went to a Benedictine school; while she excelled at school, students treated her badly and caused her great sorrow. Her sister Céline supported her through this time. At age ten, her sister Pauline, who had acted as her second mother, left for the convent, and loss again hit Thérèse. She experienced a serious illness with physical and emotional symptoms that doctors could not treat. After months of prayer by her and her family, Thérèse was miraculously cured. She attributed the cure to Our Lady of Victories.

Everything changed for Thérèse one Christmas Eve in 1886. Nearly 14 years old, she had a profound conversion. In a single moment of grace, she received the strength to set aside her past sorrow and turn her energy outward toward loving others. This freedom, joy, and strength of soul prepared her for the next stage of her life. She soon actively sought to join the Carmelite order, following in her sisters' footsteps. On a trip to Italy—speaking out of turn—she asked the pope for permission to enter religious life early. At age 15, she entered a cloistered Carmelite convent in Lisieux, Normandy, and took the name Thérèse of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face.

At the convent in Lisieux, she grew in her "little way" of holiness—seeking perfection in the ordinary things of life with a simple but total trust in God. Poor health made her dream of missionary work impossible, but the "Little Flower" soon realized that her true vocation was to love. She made small daily sacrifices for souls and sought to show love to her religious sisters by simple gestures. Thérèse's personal spirituality was preserved in her autobiography, which a convent superior had directed her to write. Summing up much of her spirituality, she wrote, "What matters in life is not great deeds but great love."

In 1896, Thérèse contracted tuberculosis and died the following year at age 24. The manuscript of her life story, The Story of a Soul, was published after her death and prompted popular devotion. She was canonized in 1925 and declared the patron saint of missions two years later. In art she is portrayed in her Carmelite habit with roses and a crucifix. St. John Paul II later declared St. Thérèse a Doctor of the Church.

Reflections on the Readings for the 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time - September 25, 2022

SEEING GOD IN THE POOR

In the Gospel reading, Jesus tells a parable of a rich man who feasted every single day and Lazarus, a beggar, who lies outside the rich man's house. In the story both men die and end up in very different places. The poor man ends up in the bosom of Abraham, and the rich man ends up in Hades.

Now in Hades, the rich man wants the poor man to serve him, but Abraham says that isn't possible. Nor is it possible for Lazarus to go back to earth and warn the rich man's relatives. No, once we die, we are held accountable for what we did… and what we didn't do.

In this parable, it's what the rich man didn't do that has created his misery. The failure to do the good we should have done is called the sin of omission, and that's where the guilt of the rich man rests. He never saw Lazarus as another human being so he did nothing to alleviate his suffering. He might not have actually added to Lazarus' pain, but he failed to help him.

We all have people who are lying at the gate of our lives. Instead of stepping over them like the rich man did to Lazarus, we are called to use our resources, whatever they may be, to serve the poor in our lives lest we, too, be guilty of the sin of omission.

In addition, the second reading this week, although it does not directly talk about material wealth, does instruct us in how to be rich in character and how to live in imitation of Christ. Both readings remind us that regardless of our own personal financial situation, we can all increase our faith in abundance by serving the poor we encounter in our daily lives.

PRAYER

Let us consider how we treat the poor in our lives. In prayer, imagine for a moment that you are one of the rich man's friends. He has invited you to dinner and you are excited about the meal you will eat because you know it will be delicious. As you approach the rich man's house, you see Lazarus lying at the gate. What do you feel as you see him? What do you do? Do you step over him, anxious to get inside to the banquet? Do you stop to talk to him? Now imagine that the rich man sees you and begins to gesture to you to hurry up and come in the house. What do you say to the rich man? What, if anything, do you say to Lazarus?

RESOLUTION

Ask the Holy Spirit to show you ways you might be selfish with the goods that you have been given. Do you use the goods entrusted to you to help serve the needy? Ask God to show you one way you might better serve the poor or a "Lazarus" in your life this week. |formed.org

O God, who has in this wonderful Sacrament left us a memorial of your Passion, grant us, we pray, so to revere the sacred mysteries of your Body and Blood that we may always experience in ourselves the fruits of your redemption. Who lives and reigns with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Jesus, Mediator of the New Covenant, grant us the grace to cherish the worship you established at the Last Supper. Amen.
