Saint Teresa of Kolkata

DATES: 1910–1997

FEAST DAY: SEPTEMBER 7

Raised in a deeply Catholic family in Albania, Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu joined the Sisters of Loreto in 1928 and took the name Teresa. The community sent her to Kolkata, India, where she taught children for two decades. In 1946 Teresa heard God’s call to quench the thirst of Jesus by caring for the poorest of the poor. She left the Sisters of Loreto to rescue the sick and destitute in the slums of Kolkata – one at a time. Many volunteers soon joined her and she formed them into her religious order, the Missionaries of Charity. Teresa’s manifest goodness and her unique media savvy attracted global attention, drawing many people to God. Many regard her as the greatest Catholic evangelist of the 20th century. She was beatified in 2003 and canonized in 2016.

Reflections on the Readings for the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time - Sept. 8, 2024

THE DIVINE PHYSICIAN

Have you ever been so sick that you needed to rely on a family member or a friend to help you get to the doctor? Sometimes we are unable to be healed on our own. We need someone else to take us. Today we hear about a man who was brought to Jesus and how grateful he was to those who loved him enough to present him before the Divine Physician.

PRAYER

Some people take a sick man to Jesus in today's healing story. Jesus receives the sick man on behalf of the people who bring him. Notice the great faith of those who brought the man to Jesus: they did not ask Jesus to heal him specifically, but entrusted him to the Great Physician. Who do you need to bring to Jesus for healing? Do you need healing yourself? Or do you, instead, not trust Jesus to heal the wounds of the world, but rather attempt to fix everything yourself?

Now put yourself in the place of the man who is healed. You have not been able to hear your entire life, nor do you have the ability to speak well. Jesus's actions must seem very strange to you. But then, the unthinkable happens: for the first time you hear people's voices, you hear leaves in the wind and birds going about their day. Jesus has just opened a world you never experienced before. What an amazing gift!

How has Jesus healed you of something that you did not even know needed healing? How has he opened your eyes to experience life anew?

RESOLUTION

How did God move your heart as you reflected on today's Gospel? Was it with inspiration and hope for a friend who needs to be taken to Jesus? Then take them to Jesus! Commit to openness to the action of Jesus in your life. Ask Jesus to touch the areas that most need his healing, and then let him do the rest. |formed.org
