TEARDROP MINISTRY PRAYER

Blessed Monica, mother of St. Augustine, we give thanks to our Father in Heaven who looked with mercy upon your tears over your wayward son. His conversion and heroic sanctification were the fruit of your prayers.

Dear St. Monica we now ask you to pray with us for all those sons and daughters that have wandered away from God, and to add your prayers to those of all mothers who are worried over their children. Pray also for us that, following your example, we may, in the company of our children, one day enjoy the eternal vision of our Father in Heaven. Amen. St Monica pray for us.

There will be a second collection this weekend to help defray the costs of replacing our overworked and outdated air conditioning system. We thank you for your patience as we searched for someone who got us up and running.

God Bless you and your families for your thoughtful and kind generosity.

Today's Gospel
Luke 10:38-42

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me." The Lord said to her in reply, Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her."

Luke provides a historical narrative of the time Jesus was the guest in the home of two sisters. Jesus says, "One thing is necessary," and indicates that Mary has chosen it – the "good portion." But doesn't it seem that what Martha was doing was good and in fact it would appear to be necessary. Jesus and his disciples just entered her village and they needed a place to rest.... and she invited them into her house. They were likely hungry and needed something to eat. I'm sure their sleeping arrangements would have had to be made somewhere in the village if not at Mary and Martha's house.

It seems that Martha has a point! Someone needs to cook. Someone needs to get a seat for everyone. Someone needs to clean everyone's feet. Someone needs to get everyone some water from their travels. Someone needs to find a place for the guests to put their luggage – or to rest and feed their animals. So if Martha didn't do these things, when would they have been done? Would they have been done at all, since Mary clearly had no movement towards helping her?

Jesus directly addresses Martha by name – twice! This is a sign of his gentleness to her. This should not be understood of as a harsh critique. He does have compassion on her... she after all is working hard in service for him and others. He is her guest. She has opened her home to him. And you can tell that Jesus sees her suffering. He puts the words anxious and troubled to her work.

In our day and age, the same temptation and struggle that weighed down on Martha presses against us too. We have more things to do than what can be done in the hours of the day. And all these important and even necessary things to get done vie against our time with Jesus and our rest in him.

Jesus says don't be worried or anxious about tomorrow. Don't worry about what you're going to wear, or what you're going to eat, or where you're going to sleep. Doesn't God provide for the birds and the grass — and how much more important and loved by God are you than birds and grass?

Jesus says that his yoke is easy and his burden is light. He invites you to come to him – everyone who is heavy-burdened and that he will give you rest for your soul.
Jesus says I come not to be served, but to serve.

Reflection

By Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

I researched the modern definition of hospitality because that concept is featured in two of our Readings today. Here is what I found online: "Hospitality means more than just service or accommodations. At its core good hospitality focuses on making others feel welcome, comfortable and valued. It involves extending warmth, kindness and generosity towards guests, visitors or even strangers, creating an environment that fosters genuine human connection and a sense of belonging. True hospitality extends beyond the confines of professional settings like hotels and restaurants."

In our First Reading from Genesis, we find Abraham, "our father in faith" as he is described in the Roman Canon, practicing good hospitality. He fulfills our definition above, although Sarah does most of the work involved!

The famous gospel story in Luke chapter 10 highlights for us the difference between the active approach and the contemplative one in the matter of hospitality. Martha had certainly made sure Jesus' feet were washed, had a comfortable chair, and good food and drink. But it is Mary who is focused on Jesus their guest. Jesus their friend. So, she doesn't run around, but instead sits down, in the attitude of a disciple. She is poised to listen. The Holy Spirit, through Luke, here provides a lesson for us on "hosting" Jesus as the guest of our souls. That means how we pray.

Our prayer is best when we put aside our agenda and try our best to focus on Jesus. This will take patience and effort, because everything else will clamor for attention. Or try to persuade us that they are more practical, better for us to be "productive" with our time.

Jesus really wants to speak to your heart and what He thinks of you. He smiles and signals us just "be still and know that He is God." (Psalm 46:10) Did you notice the calm on Pope Leo's face during those first moments on the balcony of St. Peter's right after he was announced? I did. Here is a man of prayer despite the fuss all around him.

It is important also that we pick the best time of our day to host Our Lord's visit. Michael DeBakey, a heart surgeon, once observed: "For me, the solitude of early morning is the most precious time of day. There is a quiet serenity that disappears a few hours later with the hustle and bustle of the multitude. Early morning hours symbolize for me a rebirth, the anxieties, frustration and woes of the preceding day seem to have been washed away during the night. God has granted another day of life, another chance to do something worthwhile for humanity."

Permit me to add; that grant marks God's hospitality to us.

God love you and give you His peace.
