TEARDROP MINISTRY PRAYER

Blessed Monica, mother of St. Augustine, we give thanks to our Father in Heaven who looked with mercy upon your tears over your wayward son. His conversion and heroic sanctification were the fruit of your prayers.

Dear St. Monica we now ask you to pray with us for all those sons and daughters that have wandered away from God, and to add your prayers to those of all mothers who are worried over their children. Pray also for us that, following your example, we may, in the company of our children, one day enjoy the eternal vision of our Father in Heaven. Amen. St. Monica pray for us.

Attention all those who signed up or who want to sign up to be an Altar Server—There will be a training meeting on Saturday, January 10th at 10:00 a.m. and on Saturday, December 20th at 10:00 a.m. in the Church.

All new Altar Servers are required to attend. Any boy or girl who is interested in becoming an altar server is invited to join and attend!

We hope to see you there!

Reflection

By Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Those of us of “a certain age” became educated by a process called “Rote Learning.” You’ll recognize it as I define it here: “a memorization method that relies on repetition and drilling to commit information to memory without necessarily understanding the underlying concepts.” It is a technique for retaining specific facts, like the times table, historical dates, and vocabulary, and that allows for quick recall, but it does not foster critical thinking, or deep comprehension of the subject matter. In addition, with the passage of time, we have learned that rote learning does not prepare youngsters for higher education and does not usually build knowledge. Yet, for all that last critique, I can quickly recall $9 \times 6 = 54$ when I need it, without turning to my smart phone.

All of this brings us to consider how the ancient Hebrews in Our Lord’s audience had no choice but rote learning. This was underscored by the twin facts that there was no printed matter to refer to, and for the common folk at least, no way to read if there had been.

No wonder, then, that Our Lord, as the Master Teacher, would tell stories to bolster their knowledge of truth, with what we would call today “meaningful learning.” For example: How to be a good neighbor? Consider the classic parable of “The Good Samaritan.”

Even we moderns can learn from John the Baptist’s living example and his preaching, what the short season of Advent is all about. He doesn’t tell stories, like his cousin does. But watching him and listening to him is enough. He tells us to “Repent, because the Kingdom of heaven is near.” That kingdom was afterward personified by the Infant in the manger.

In practical terms, observing Advent could mean some deliberate fasting before the coming feasting. Or scheduling some quiet time away from the hustle and bustle of these weeks to pray. Certainly, the making of a good confession in Advent is a good idea, because it clears away the debris from the “stable” of our souls to welcome Jesus.

Of course, there are other ways to learn besides the two I have mentioned. Not necessarily all pleasant. We have this story of a man who wanted to train his mule. The first thing he did was to pick up a big stick and hit the mule with a resounding wallop between the ears. As the mule staggered about, someone said to him “What’s the matter with you? Why did you do that awful thing? The man said. “Listen, to teach a mule, you must first get his attention.”

Poor mule! Yet anybody who has taught knows you need the attention first. Let the Advent season get our attention for authentic prep for Christmas.

God love you and have a good Advent week.
